Welcome to Safe Passage Travel Medicine, P.C., where our board certified infectious disease physicians and nurse practitioner provide comprehensive health care for the international traveler.

This document answers the most commonly asked questions regarding payment for our services, so please read it thoroughly. If you need additional information about our payment policies, please direct your questions to our receptionist.

Payment Policy

- We accept Cash, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express and all debit cards.
- We do not accept personal or business checks as form of payment.
- Per our credit card agreement, we cannot accept third party credit card transactions. The primary cardholder must be physically present at the time of service for payment to be accepted.
- Please note that, unfortunately, preventive travel medicine services are not commonly covered by health insurance plans. You will need to check directly with your insurance carrier to verify if your plan covers preventive medicine for travel purposes.
- We will provide you with a complete and detailed statement of medical services for you to submit to your insurance carrier for possible reimbursement. Safe Passage Travel Medicine, P.C. is a private professional corporation that is not contracted with any health insurance companies and is not required to and does not accept any form of health insurance as payment for services rendered. When you submit a claim, the processing of your claim(s) will be a transaction directly between you and your insurance company.

Medicare Beneficiaries

- Medicare typically does not cover preventive services such as travel medicine, but we will provide you with a complete and detailed statement of medical services that includes all the proper information and codes for you to submit to Medicare.
- Safe Passage Travel Medicine, P.C. is a private professional corporation that is not contracted with any health insurance companies or Medicare and is not required to and does not accept any form of health insurance as payment for services rendered.

Thank you for entrusting your travel health to Safe Passage Travel Medicine, P.C.

I have read, understand, and agree to the conditions as explained above.
